UNIMOGS TIMBER TRAILERS WOOD CHIPPERS SPARES ACCESSORIES WORKSHOP

Hello all!

I trust everyone had lots of lovely bank holidays and are now back to being busy, busy with their Unimogs, chippers and trailers and working off all those Easter eggs!

A NEW ADDITION

Some of you may have already come across our new Operations Manager Neil if you've called in the last few weeks to order some spares or book your Unimog into our workshop. Neil has recently joined the AV team to help manage the workshop, spares and make sure everything runs smoothly!

THE BEES KNEES

We have recently supplied an existing customer of ours with 3 U1300L Unimogs to add to their existing fleet of 2. There is one more left to paint and the fleet is complete. To read more about what they are all going to be involved in, click here.

LATEST MOGS TO LEAVE OUR YARD

Here we have a Unimog U1100 and a Unimog U1750, both complete with trailers all loaded up and ready to hit the road to pastures new. For more details on where they came from, the part we played in them and where they are off to, please click here.

MOBILE MECHANIC UPDATE

Michael, our mobile mechanic has been out and about all over the country again this month. To read a bit more about where he has been and what he's been up to, please click here.

RESTORATION COMPLETE

This 1984 Unimog U1700 belongs to a customer of ours in Australia. Before its complete re-build it was used to carry tourists. Now it has been converted to take the family on some adventures of their own! For more details please click here. If you are reading this from out side the UK and need some parts for your Unimog, don't forget that we ship worldwide on a daily basis so give us a call or send us an email with your requirements.

WHAT A VIEW!

In our March newsletter, we showed PLPC coming to collect the U100L we had for sale. Since then, the U100L has been returned minus its access platform and here is the platform fitted onto their Morooka which are made in Japan. Bet they get quite a view from up there!

ANOTHER NEW ADDITION

*I hope you don't mind, but I thought I would finish off with a bit of my own news!
Me and my other half are expecting our second (must be mad!) little bundle of joy in September so there will be another new voice at the end of the phone while I am off on my maternity leave!*

That'a all again from me for this month!

*Thanks,
Emma*
